

NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE MAKES BIG SHOWING

Business and Professional Men's Night at the New Metropolitan
A. M. E. Zion Church Well Attended and Inspired by Much Practical Enthusiasm

Last Tuesday night the local Negro Business League turned out in a body at the New Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Church, at Garrison and Lave Avenue. The unique program was interestingly carried out in the form of an experience meeting. In their short talks the speakers told how the League had helped them along business lines.

President W. C. Gordon told the members of the League and urged all who were interested in Negro business to join, and especially urged the women to join, stating that the women spend most of the money earned by the men. Other speakers were as follows:

E. B. Lavine, coffee and tea; Mrs. Nevin, groceries and meats; Mr. Calloway, ice, coal and express; Mr. and Smith, haberdashery; Mr. H. Stanton, Acme Laundry Co.; H. S. Ferguson, restaurant; J. R. Dry goods; Mr. R. H. Allen, wall paper and decorating; Dr. P. Curtis, physician; Wm. Dooley, dentist; Prof. David E. Gordon, subject.

The earnestness with which each speaker told of his efforts to make a name, not only for himself, but for the members of the race, has its own upon the hearts.

At the close of the program Hon. J. Monroe Trotter, of Boston, spoke in the "Evils of Segregation."

The Independent Voter was much in evidence at the primaries last Friday, and as a result the Republicans succeeded in nominating a ticket so strong that a complete victory looks certain. The biggest surprise was the nomination of A. H. Frederick for President of the Board. Mr. Frederick won by over 2,400 plurality, without any machine support. The following is the ticket as it will go before the voters Tuesday, April 6.

Madam P. M. Dabney Silver Grill Secures Talented Performers

Headquarters at 1403 Market St. to be Distributing Point For 20th Century Hair Preparation

Madam P. M. Dabney, of 1806 East 24th Street, Kansas City, has established a branch office in this city at 1403 Market St., where she is furnishing supplies for her St. Louis patrons. She came to the city Sunday night with Miss May Smith, of Parsons, Kansas, and Mrs. Mattie P. Garner, of 1728 Woodland Ave., Kansas City, Mo., who have had years of experience in this work. In the western country no one has achieved the success that Madam Dabney has and her goods have the recommendation of all persons who have used them. Mrs. Dabney, with her co-workers, is stopping with Mrs. Crittenden Clark, at 5654 North Market St., and her permanent headquarters in this city will be at 1403 Market St.

Madam Dabney's 20th Century Hair Preparation needs no special introduction in this city as those who have come to us from the different cities in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Iowa, Colorado, Nebraska, and all southern and western states, will readily testify to the benefits derived from using this wonderful preparation.

Madam Dabney will be in the city the next six weeks instructing her representatives in the work and will be pleased to meet her many friends and patrons at her office, 1403 Market St., between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. daily.

Poor Yet Making Rich

By REV. L. W. CORNELL

Address to the Class, Monday Night Lecture, Class.

TEXT—As poor, yet making many rich.—II Cor. 8:24.

On Christmasday a certain Christian worker was troubled because he could not make many converts.

Many times, his poverty distressed him, until there began to threaten in his mind the words of the text: "As poor, yet making many rich." He forgot his poverty and began to understand the joy of the apostle, who had learned "to suffer need."

1. Paul enriched the world by his life. All his preaching was enforced by his testimony, "I live, yet not by Christ live in me." Spurgeon comments on the wonderful power of George Muller's preaching: "It was quite simple, but the hearer felt that there was a man dealing with realities of which he knew." The bishop of Durham tells of a university preacher at Cambridge who generally spoke to empty benches, yet when the students were sick or dying they would send for him; his life was fragrant.

2. His prayers were another source of Paul's riches for the world. We may say without straining language that he prayed "without ceasing" and we may follow him here. Says John R. Mott: "It is possible for the most obscure person in a church with a heart right toward God, to exercise as much power for the evangelization of the world as it is for those who stand in the most prominent positions. Therefore no one is excusable if he commits the great sin of omitting to pray." We can make missionaries and native churches rich, and our own church and community, too, no matter how poor we may be. Dr. Campbell Morgan tells of a preacher who would go from pew to pew in his church on weekdays and pray for those who were on the Sunday. Dr. Morgan ventures the opinion that this is perhaps the highest service that even a great preacher could do for his flock.

3. His writings are one of Paul's gifts to the world. What a heritage are his epistles! We know how "Pilgrim's Progress" was written by a clerk in jail, and how the English thinker had unusual genius, it may be replied that many ordinary persons, with love for Christ in their souls, can do valuable service for the world. It was a letter from a friend, written with a faltering hand, that led Henry Clay Trumbull to Christ; the world knows of his splendid service as preacher, explorer, expositor, Sunday school worker and editor. We heard of a woman who watched the daily record of the papers and sent to every bereaved household a letter or booklet containing a word for the Master: "Who does not cover her friend and who could not do likewise?"

4. His preaching was another of Paul's blessings for men. He could say to multitudes of converts, as he said to the Thessalonians, "What is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even we in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?" Preachers, it has been said, are often like the children of the wilderness fed on thistles. But they should, poor how they made many rich! We know of one who had not realized all the ambitions of his early ministry; his churches had been obscure and his salary small, and it grieved him that his wife had dressed shabbily. Yet here, he had led a poor country lad to Christ; there, he had helped a boy get out of college; there, he had led a boy to Christ; there, he had led a boy to Christ.

Spiritual treasure has been so showered upon us that we enrich men when we are unaware. We listened recently to the story of a young man who, after serving Satan well, had come to Christ. He was a sailor on an English ship, which was bringing in a cargo of opium from the coast of Cornwall. One quiet afternoon, as he was washing dishes there was borne to him from the shore the sound of Christ's love song. A candle was being carried through the village streets and the simple Cornish folk who followed were singing that noble hymn:

O God, our help in ages past,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Little did they think of their souls' deliverance from the power of Satan, and the good that followed this wayward sailor led over the high seas until he had found the true "Shelter from the stormy blast" of Christ's love.

And blessing everywhere—"as poor, yet making many rich."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the National Bible Institute, Chicago.

LESSON FOR MARCH 21

JONATHAN AND HIS ARMOR-BEARER.

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 14:1-15. GOLDEN TEXT—Let us put on the armor of light.—Rom. 13:12.

Samuel's review of his life of integrity, his charge to the Israelites, God's testimony of displeasure over their persistent desire to have a king, and Samuel's words of comfort and assurance as found in chapter 13, form an interesting connection with last Sunday's lesson. In chapter 14 we have the record of Israel again in distress and of Saul's folly in his assuming the priestly office (vv. 13, 14). 1. Saul's Distress, vv. 1-4. That Saul's disobedience, just indicated, had incurred God's displeasure, we know. It evidently had its effect upon the people also, for his army had dwindled through the intervening years or eighteen years, from 30,000 (ch. 11:3) to a feeble 600 (v. 3). They were further handicapped by a lack of weapons (ch. 13:19-23). Deserted by Jehovah, by Samuel, Jehovah's priest, and by nearly all of his enthusiastic subjects (see 11:3) Saul was "in the utmost of distress." The bishop of Durham tells of a university preacher at Cambridge who generally spoke to empty benches, yet when the students were sick or dying they would send for him; his life was fragrant.

2. His prayers were another source of Paul's riches for the world. We may say without straining language that he prayed "without ceasing" and we may follow him here. Says John R. HATCHING SEASON NOW OPEN

The Senter's Hatchery opens the season for the selling of day old chicks. The demand last year for day-old chicks was so great that the hatchery was compelled to increase our hatching capacity to 3,000 eggs every twenty-one days. We are now in a position to place on the market 1,000 baby chicks each week. Chicks bought from the Senter's Hatchery can be expected to live, for the eggs come from hens that are range raised, full of life and vigor. An egg incubated from such stock, and using the proper methods of hatching, results in a chick that, with ordinary care and a little expense, is a fowl worth having.

AFRO-AMERICAN COLLEGE

The oldest Negro publishing house in the country is operated by the African Episcopal church of St. Paul, 381 Pine street, Philadelphia. Here all the books, church discipline and other church literature are published. Here, since 1852, the Christian Recorder, the oldest Negro newspaper in existence has been published. Here, since 1882, the oldest Negro magazine, the A. M. E. Review, also has been published. Here, many of the books written by Negroes have been printed. The largest and without doubt best equipped Negro publishing house is also operated by this church. It is the Christian Recorder, which supplies nearly 300,000 Negro children with their Sunday school literature, taking nearly 50 persons to the work. This literature is written, printed and distributed by Negroes. Connected with this department is a Sunday school Journal called the Young Alliance, a young people's journal called the Allen Deavorer and a weekly paper, the Southern Christian Recorder.

The church started 100 years ago. It has three-quarters of a million; and raises annually about $4,000,000. Its property is worth $11,000,000. It has over 4,000 churches throughout the world. Its general financial scheme is based upon a tax of $1 for each member. This goes to pay the salaries of the pastors, the salaries of the widows, retired bishops, orphans, superannuated preachers, etc. Other departments are church extension, young people's work, the Western Christian Recorder.

To rationalize education throughout the country has been the purpose of the church for the nation's progress. As the great majority of men are engaged today in constructive work—that industrial, technical, commercial and institutional training—that are growing in number everywhere the note of progress is decided. The rationalization of the educational system for the Negro should find cooperative action now among intelligent people of both races.

Just as the Boston College of Technology has been the first country school to encourage and promote practical form of education for which the nation's inventive and constructive forces demand; just as the Hampton Institute, Virginia, training to the South came to save a social inertia, as well as one educational, Hampton Institute, Virginia, is the first school to give a spiritual or educational light which the Negro race may look to as their star of hope and guide to progress.

According to the preliminary report of the census bureau, just published, the colored population of the country has been making a rapid rate of progress, measured by the returns of the decade with which development it deals. They have increased in number, though at a much lower rate than the native whites, and far below the record of the foreign born whites. In the ten year period the total value of the farm property operated by Negroes has more than doubled and now exceeds very considerably $1,000,000,000. But perhaps the most encouraging gain of all is the advance that has been made in education. In 1910 more than 57 per cent of the blacks were reported as illiterate. That has now been reduced to a little over 30 per cent. If the 1920 census shows as well for them, the white people may find themselves left behind, at least in elementary education—Boston Transcript.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

The Argus is highly pleased with the result of last Friday's primary election. Our pleasure is the greater because the voters did as the Argus had advised them to do.

We called attention to the fact, in a previous issue, that all the candidates had been sent a letter, asking where they stood on the segregation question. This letter was sent out by the local branch of The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. In our last issue, we published the names of those safe candidates for us to vote for, and we recommended that the Negro vote accordingly.

The result of the election showed that our advice was followed. Great thanks are due the organization above mentioned for its splendid services and its foresight and vigilance in the matter. Praise is likewise due our voters for once holding together and voting in the interest of the race and not for individual interests. It shows what we frequently argue, that the Negro, united, holds the balance of power.

Now let us profit by this experience. Whenever a danger threatens us, we need only to present a united front, when few, if any, dangers will be able to stand against us.

No stronger argument can be presented in favor of the St. Louis branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People than this work prior to the primary election. An obligation rests upon our citizenship to hear and heed the call being made this week for many new members.

Let us make this a great organization—numerically and influentially. Become a member.

OUR BAND BOYS

Next Sunday will be the last of the series of band concerts of the season at Pythian Hall. We feel that a word of encouragement and commendation is due these capable organizations. We feel, too, that our people should be proud of the bands as well as be congratulated upon so valuable an accession to our civic life.

Foremost among the features is the training it gives the boys themselves. We refer not alone to the musical training, though the cultivation of any art is an important factor in civilization and refinement. But we have in mind also the training in discipline and deportment.

All boys stand in need of these things; but more particularly, our boys. Other boys have the prestige and development of their entire race behind them. Our boys have little or nothing behind them. Their parents had few opportunities, limited education and no encouragement. In not many cases are the parents able to give the training our boys need in discipline and deportment; they never had it themselves.

Another noticeable feature is the self-confidence which these boys are developing. Their concerts have been made more interesting by the solo work and other individual contributions to the program by young people—all of which would be a credit to much older and more experienced talent.

We would like to see a large and representative audience greet them at their closing concert next Sunday. We would like to see parents generally, interested and appreciative enough to seek to get their boys into these bands. We would like to see the public at large give these young musicians the moral and financial support they deserve.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

The National Negro Business League has sent out a call, signed by President Washington, for the observance of "Health Week," beginning with Sunday the 21st.

It is expected that every pastor of a colored church in America will read the call to his congregation and urge upon his people the observance of the suggestions offered by the National Committee.

We hope that no pastor in St. Louis will fail to perform this sacred obligation. Sacred. Certainly! For if there is any one thing God Almighty requires of His children, it is health. "What! Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost?" "Present your bodies a living sacrifice, wholly acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

Indeed, it is made an absolute condition of entrance into heaven. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord, or who shall stand in His holy place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart. Cleanliness is not only next to, but equal with, godliness. And cleanliness can only result from observing the fundamental laws of health.

Most of us realize the importance of personal cleanliness—clean clothes and clean bodies. But equally important are our surroundings. People are largely the product of their environment. Those who live in the midst of dirt will be dirty—physically, or morally—or both. Adversely, those whose surroundings are clean will be clean, even though they may be poor. Poverty is no excuse for dirt or disease.

Hence the emphasis which the National Health Committee puts upon the cleaning up of our surroundings. Therefore, we supplement the call of the League, and urge every Negro resident to observe Health Week by a general cleaning up of person, of house, of grounds and of surroundings.

The result will be twofold: First, health. Every dust heap, every dirt pile is a breeder of disease; and of those particular types of disease which are peculiar to the Negro. Second, respect. No person, dirty or living amid dirt, can be self-respecting. And no person lacking in self-respect can command the respect of others.

Then, let us clean up. Not only will it bring us an epidemic of health; not only will it make us self-respecting; but it will command and win the respect of the white residents. And thus will be effectively answered their stock argument that neighborhoods run down and property depreciates with the invasion of Negro residents.

So, down with dirt, the Tyrant! Up with King Health, rightful heir to the throne!

EASY WAY TO FILTER WATER

Simple and Comparatively Without Cost—Excellent Lamp for the Sinkroom—Towel Brackets.

It often happens that pump water is filled with sand or gritty substance, and one must wait until it has settled before it is fit to use. If this is the case, an easy way to filter it is to take a rather fine sponge, just large enough to fit into the spout of the pump. Attach a wire to the sponge, so that when it is pushed up in the spout it can easily be removed. When the water runs through this sponge it will come out clear, for the sand will be collected by the sponge. Be sure not to get the sponge too large, or it will stop the flow of water. Take the sponge out at least twice a week and clean it thoroughly.

A small lamp can be made for the sinkroom by taking a bottle such as mullage comes in and attaching to it by a wire a short piece of brass or copper tubing one-eighth of an inch in diameter. A thick piece of cotton cord makes the wick, and the chimney is simply a tumbler with the bottom cut out. These lamps are safe and will burn without odor. Lamp oil will be found a good substitute for kerosene and will be less apt to smoke.

Very serviceable brackets for a towel roller can be made by using ordinary wire hooks, as shown in the illustration. The roller is made of wood—a hard handle will do—and two nails with the heads knocked off are inserted in the ends. These are put through the opening in the ends of the hooks, so that the roller can revolve easily. When it is necessary to change towels, spring the hooks apart and slip out the roller.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

It is a needless waste of fire to keep a stove red hot all the time. Place with good cheese over it makes a change as a luncheon dish. Turpentine is said to restore the lost whiteness of ivory handles of cutlery.

Bordered or plastered walls make an excellent background if stained a good color.

Cream cheese and watercress will make a delicious sandwich for the lunch basket.

Sometimes merely bending new kinks into a hat make it look like a new shape.

Charming footstool covers are made of gray linen worked in colored cross-stitch design.

No fruit salad is complete without a touch of color in the shape of a marooned cherry.

A good meat salad is made with chopped cold meat and cold-boiled potatoes, onion and parsley.

Bread and butter, cheese and beans, nuts and sugar, are among the best foods for the hard worker.

It is said that all kinds of natural-colored feathers can be washed in lukewarm water and good white soap.

Hints for Good Cooks.
Salad dressing can be made of almost anything, but the best imitation of the genuine can be manufactured by taking two teaspoons of gasoline, a pint of vinegar, three tablespoons of cod liver oil and a jigger of axle grease.

There is always one way sure to tell when eggs is bad. Roll it soft and then open it with a common case knife or a spoon. If it is bad you will not be left long in doubt.

Peach Pie.
Line pie plate with a rich pie crust and fill with peaches, either canned or fresh. Sweeten as desired and bake until nearly done. Then cover top with dots of currant jelly, or any tart jelly and finish baking. Beat whites of two eggs stiff; stir in one-fourth cup sugar; spread over pie and brown.

With Your Pepper Seeds.
When using green or red sweet peppers save the seeds, which you find in large numbers inside the shell. Dry the seeds, hairs, etc., which are so hard to get out of the brushes of a carpet sweeper.

To Clean a Carpet Sweeper.
A very coarse scrubbing brush will be found the best thing for cleaning the threads, hairs, etc., which are so hard to get out of the brushes of a carpet sweeper.

For Tar Stains.
Tar stains may be removed from cotton fabrics by covering the spots with butter and allowing it to remain for a few hours before washing.

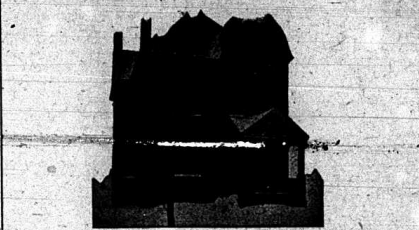

Flannel Bed Cloths.
Try flannel white quilts flannel bed cloths. They are very durable, also softer for glass and fine china. A 14-inch square is a good size.

74 SIMON AND MOSE'S NEW DAWG

GIANTS WILL OPEN SEASON APRIL 18

Manager Charles Mills announces Sunday, April 18, as the opening day for the Giants 1915 base ball season here. All fandom will be served with a big surprise when it journeys out to the beautiful new park at 6100 North Broadway on that day. Nothing has been left undone in preparing one of the most complete parks in the country. The comfort of the patrons has been arranged to the minutest detail. Forty-one large, comfortable boxes, of four seats each, have been installed. Nine of these have already been reserved by the American Hotel Waiters for the opening game. On that day Former Umpire Robert L. Jones, head waiter at the American Hotel, will umpire one inning as a farewell to his baseball activity. On Monday night, April 19, a farewell banquet and reception will be tendered Mr. Jones at the Keystone Cafe.

Mr. Mills has gathered together a club of well-known stars that will be hard to beat, and the fans are sure of high class base ball. The complete line-up will probably be published next week. Chester Smith, who is attending to the advertising in the 'Ville, is rendering indispensable service and expects that section of the city to turn out en masse on Sunday, April 18.

ATHLETICS AND AMUSEMENTS

By H. T. M.

BOOKER WASHINGTON

Booker Washington Theater party are being served with a very classy show this week. The Artie Mathews Sextette, of two women and four men, open the bill with a repertoire of songs well arranged and rendered. Mr. Mathews presides at the piano opening with "Rachmanoff's Prelude. Tom Mills takes up "The Opera Rag" from one of the boxes and does well. He later presents "Garden of My Heart" from the stage. Miss Missouri May, in "Song of the Soul," and Miss Margaret Dore, in "The Crow-Dead Man," assisted by "Rachmanoff" to the audience, make decisive hits. Ben Horton sings a base solo with good effect. The entire company closes with a medley of choruses and are generously applauded.

The Blanche Sisters, Aracoola and Burlanna, keep up their classy standard with a collection of tuneful melodies. Both are excellent singers and make a good stage appearance. Their work is finished and delivered with a polish that classes them with the best of female performers. They are favorites with the B. W. patrons.

Tim and Hester Moore are presenting an altogether different act this week which shows the apparent unlimited versatility of this team. Their feature is a burlesque magic from which they get much comedy by exposing their mystic feasts to the audience. They do considerably singing and dancing and go good with the crowds.

Tim and Hester Moore will remain over in St. Louis, and commencing week after next will put on a series of tabloids, assisted by Bowman and Burnette and other talent. Some amateur performers will be used and any young men of women wishing to get engagements should report immediately to Mr. Turpin at the Booker Washington box office. No experience is necessary. Anyone with talent can be used.

The Argus man squeezed into the Booker Washington Wednesday night for the house was packed to the doors, hundreds standing. Every act was going big; but the Blanche Sisters almost stopped the show. They are immensely popular. Tim and Hester Moore had changed their act to one of their favorite comedies and were cleaning up. Mathews and his sextette were being lionized. Everybody was happy. Even the box office was in smiles. Charlie Turpin was too small for the big crowd and could not be found.

TESTIMONIALS:

Dear Madam:
I have a friend by the name of Mrs. Sarah Miller, and have been personally friendly to her for over three years, and during the time she wore a wig. I have been treating her hair for about two months, and now she has taken the wig off, and uses her own hair except a small piece in the back. This treatment is wonderful, I must say. Another lady by the name of Mrs. Emma Tux, when I first saw the lady I was afraid to touch her hair, I thought I would burn the scalp, her hair was so short, and if I had seen her before I began to treat her scalp you would not believe it was the same head; it was the worst one I have and it was the worst one more next time.

Your agent,
Mrs. Muriel Hall,
Tampa, Fla.

Dear Madam:
Yes, Nineteen, Fourteen, in the month of August, I was visiting my friend, Mrs. Emma B. Wiley, who and I were looking over the Voice of the People, a newspaper, and found her advertisement for hair-growing, and we both decided to work for the Oxford College. I have tried everything for my hair and nothing did it any good, until I began using Major's Hair Oil, and I feel proud of my hair today, and feel more than able to speak for it anywhere and any time. I can truly say it is the real thing and does the work.

And I will say to all ladies, let us work hard, and use W. L. Major's face creams, hair oils and powder, and look good.

Your agent,
Mrs. Annie Johnson,
New Decatur, Ala.

Sir: Your Oxford Complexion Cream is among the best I have ever used, it shall always be on my dressing table, and you may be sure that your number of customers will be made more numerous by my advocating the use of it among my many friends and acquaintances.

Yours truly,
G. E. Bostwick,
Murphyboro, Ill.
